All Carmel Program Tuesday

Abandoning the practice of the past two years of inviting honor guards and chaplains from the neighboring military reservations to conduct the Memorial Day Services in Devendorf Plaza, this year the committee in charge has arranged an All Carmel Program for next Tuesday's observance.

Carmel High School cadet corps will serve as honor guard. Boy Scouts, Girl Scouts, uniformed Carmel women of the war service organizations of the town such as the Red Cross, Grey Ladies, A.W. V.S., etc, will participate in the ceremonies. A solo will be sung by Anne Barrows, who possesses one of Carmel's finest contralto voices. Prayers will be offered by Carmel ministers, and Mayor P. A. McCreery will give the address.

The program, arranged by Ernest Morehouse, commander of the Carmel post of the American Legion, will begin at two o'clock Tuesday afternoon in front of the memorial stone dedicated to the Carmel men in the armed forces who have lost their lives in the present war.

The high school cadets will enter through the lanes kept cleared by the Boy Scouts. Uniformed women of the Service Organizations will lower the flag while a high school bugler will sound taps. Girl Scouts will place a wreath in front of the Memorial Stone. A prayer will be offered by Rev. Carel Hulsewe. Miss Anne Barrows will sing a solo, and Ernest Morehouse, Dr. James E. Crowther and Mayor P. A. McCreery will speak. Following benediction by Father Michael O'Connell, the assembly will sing the National Anthem, led by Miss Barrows.

Distinguished Names In Under $100 Exhibition

By PATRICIA CUNNINGHAM

The Carmel Art Association, in the current show in the Oil Gallery, has arranged one of the most significant shows of its history, an exhibit of small paintings in all mediums, which are priced under $100. The Art Association's interest is to bring the work of its members within the price range of the new market which has grown up as a result of the war. This market is formed of people who have always wished to own paintings but never before have been able to fulfill this desire. War work and war salaries have given them the wherewithal to acquire works of art, but on a much more modest scale than the usual collector. The Art Association has done a splendid job of assembling paintings that are low in price and of very first-rate quality, a really splendid contribution to the new demand.

Distinguished signatures like O'Shea, Hansen, Baer, Oliver, Randolph, Morgan, Koch, Silva and most of the others who have come to be legend in the history of the Art Association are represented in this exhibition. They have chosen of their stores with the sort of wise discrimination which this kind of exhibit requires. There is every type of content and style so there is little limit to appeal

M.A.C. Presents Pasmore Sisters In Concert Here

The Carmel Musical Arts Club once again has scored a triumph in securing Mary and Suzanne Pasmore. The brilliant and versatile pianist and violinist are appearing at the Carmel High School Music Room in concert on Friday evening, June 2, at 8:30. Mary and Suzanne Pasmore are sisters, members of the Pasmore family which has been affectionately called the Royal Family of Music. These sisters have played together in concert since they were tiny girls, and have earned glowing tribute from the press wherever they have appeared. At various times, their concert tours have taken them all over the United States. —D. E.

CARMEL ADULT FORUM

The final meeting of the Carmel Forum will take place next Tuesday night, in the library of Sunset School at eight o'clock, when Dr. Friedlander, of the University of California will speak on the subject, Social Security-The Postwar Goal.

Word of the death at Mare Island Naval Hospital of Capt. DeWitt Blamer, USN Ret. reached Carmel yesterday. He and Mrs. Blamer have been residents of Carmel Point for a number of years.

Mariner's Medal, Posthumous Award, To Bill Dickinson

The War Shipping Administration's Mariner's Medal, awarded posthumously to William Colebrooke Dickinson of Carmel, was presented Wednesday afternoon to his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry F. Dickinson in their home on the point.

Dickinson, an oiler on the SS JOHN MOTLEY was lost when his ship was sunk by enemy aircraft on December 2, 1943. In a citation directed to his parents, Rear Admiral Emory S. Land, War Shipping Administrator said:

"By authority of the Congress of the United States, it is my honor to present to you, the father of Oiler William Colebrooke Dickinson, the Mariner's Medal in commemoration of the greatest service anyone can render cause or country.

Dickinson was lost when his ship, the SS JOHN L. MOTLEY was sunk by enemy aircraft on December 2, 1943. He was one of those men who today are so gallantly unholding the tradition of those hearty mariners who defied anyone to stop the American Flag from sailing the seas in the early days of the republic. He was one of those men upon whom the Nation now depends to keep our ships afloat upon the perilous seas; and to carry with them the vitally needed material to keep our forces fighting.

"Nothing I can do or say will in any sense requite the loss of your

Boxing Bouts In Forest Theatre For Bond Rally

The best boxing card that has ever been offered on the Monterey Peninsula is being arranged for Monday night, June 12, in the Forest Theatre, home of the Carmel Shakespeare Festival, when the stage that has known pageantry, music and the greatest of the Greek dramas, will be converted into box seats for bond buying spectators witnessing a series of bouts between top notch fighters of the Pacific Coast.

And to those old time Carmelites who might turn up their eyes in horror that boxing matches should be held in the sacred precincts for so many years devoted to the arts, Ken Carleton, who is promoting the matches for the local members of the National Beverage Association, as part of a bond rally for the Fifth War Loan Drive says, "Shakespeare was no sissy. He is full of excursions and alarums, and if he were around now, would probably be the first in line to buy a bond to gain him admission to the bouts. We don't propose to make the forest theatre permanently a fight arena. This is an isolated occurrence for a special purpose, the selling of War Bonds. And nothing is too sacred, even the Forest Theatre, for raising money to buy the arms and supplies that will hasten the end of the war and bring our boys home again."

The card is not complete yet, but those fighters who have been contacted, and they are the best in the state, have agreed to come, donating their services for the patriotic cause.

In addition to the matches, there will be music by a band from one of the military or naval posts on the peninsula, and an auction presided over by an auctioneer to be announced later.

Morton-Barrows Concert Offers Rare Experience

In the song recital to be presented at the Carmel Playhouse on Monday evening, May 29, at 8:30 by Rachel Morton, soprano and Anne Barrows, contralto, with Jaffrey Harris as accompanist, the audience will have an opportunity very rare indeed, of hearing two blended voices that are identical in production, differing only in register, since Anne Barrows, advanced pupil of Rachel Morton, has attained her high peak of perfection through the same method used by her accomplished instructor.

Miss Barrows came with Miss Morton to Carmel four years ago after studying with her in New York, to attend the B Minor Mass at the Mission, concluding the Bach Festival. The two decided instantly that Carmel, with its pines and sand dunes, its Mission, and tis deep appreciation of music, was the one spot in which they had been longing to unpack for an indefinite stay.

The program which they are presenting on Monday evening is as follows:

1—Duet: Passage Bird's Farewell, Hildach; Miss Morton and Miss Barrows. II—a: Widmung, Schumann; b: Sappische Ode, Brahms; c: Primula veris, Grieg; d: Aufenthalt, Schubert; Miss Barrow. III—a: Aus meinen grossen

Silva Celebrates 30th Anniversary

It is 30 years since William P. Silva established his Carmelita Gallery on San Antonio street, 3 doors north of Ocean ave., and in celebration of this anniversary the artist has set aside June 1st through June 11 for what he has dubbed a Pre-Flight Exhibition, open to the public between the hours of 3 p. m. and 5 daily.

This showing of Silva paintings and sketches will have an especial significance historically, since it comprises the work done between 1875 and 1907, the year in which Mr. Silva came to make his home in Carmel.

As an added feature of the exhibition twelve or more sketches made by the artist during his early student days in Paris will be shown, and a guessing game conducted in which visitors will compete for Silva paintings as prizes.

"All they have to do," explains the artist, with his characteristic twinkle of the eye, "is to guess correctly what I was trying to sketch."

Hi Students Offer 3 One Act Plays At Sunset Auditorium

By JUNE QUINN

Monday, May 29, is Play Night at Sunset Auditorium. The drama class of Carmel high school is presenting three one act plays, The Happy Journey, Thornton Wilder; Master Pierre Patelin, Anonymous, and Red Velvet Goat, Josephine Niggli. The plays deal with three entirely different situations, countries and peoples.

Happy Journey tells the story of an auto trip of an average American family, the setting about twenty years ago. The cast includes, Bonnie Fish, Donald Kennington, Ann Gambee, George McElroy, Pat Post and Robert Jensen.

Master Pierre Patelin is an old French comedy, a classic of the fifteenth century. It is the story of a shyster lawyer who cheats a tailor and then gets cheated by a country yokel. Playing in this piece are Claire Warner, Joan Penoyer, Joan Carr, Martha Moller and Ann Bates.

The final production, The Red Velvet Goat, is a modern Mexican play written by a comparative newcomer to the field and deals with the simple, country peasants from a remote region in Mexico. It is a play within a play, showing the reactions of the simple

Adeline Bartelme

In the death of Miss Adeline Theresa Bartelme, which occurred last Saturday evening at Hill Top, the Carmel Highlands home she shared for the past thirteen years with her sister, Judge Mary Bartelme, and her niece, Miss Adelaide Bartelme, there came to its close a long, active and peculiarly inspiring life.

Miss Bartelme was born in New York City on January 9, 1852, the second in a family of six children. She accompanied her family to Chicago in 1858 and lived in that city for the next seventy-five years, serving for well over a quarter of a century as an art instructor in the Chicago high schools. The impression she left upon her pupils and her colleagues was a deep and lasting one, and throughout the years since her retirement many of them have kept up a lively correspondence with her. During the past year, when frequent writing became more difficult on her part, several of her former pupils adopted the custom of sending her picture postcards monthly.

Before leaving Chicago, Miss Bartelme expressed a willingness to come to California to live if she could return annually for a Chicago visit, but at the close of her first year at Carmel Highlands, when it was suggested that she plan her trip, she stepped to the east window of her room, overlooking the Santa Lucia hills and her garden; then to the south window looking down the shore toward the Big Sur and then to her western view of Yankee Point and Point Lobos, noting especially the shrubs and trees that had grown like magic under her loving care from tiny plants.

"Why leave all this beauty, even for a moment?" she demanded with a wave of her hand, "for Chicago—the noisy city that I love!"

Few people were more devoted to flowers than Miss Bartelme and wherever she lived she surrounded herself with a large and colorful garden plot in which she worked untiringly. Even within the last few weeks of her life she sat in the patio and worked over little potted sedums and cacti of many shapes and sizes or stood at the brick wall and weeded and broke off dead leaves and flowers as far as she could reach.

After her retirement from teaching she gave hours of her time to sewing for needy children and during the past few years she made over three hundred little bonnets and jackets which were distributed through the Red Cross to the babies in war-torn countries. Only three weeks ago she was still busily sewing ends of hospital shoe ties for the Red Cross.

This gentle little woman radiated an atmosphere of peace for all of her many friends and admirers yet never lost her keen interest in the current scene. She was an avid reader and until recently took great delight in attending the movies. The occasion of her 90th birthday, two years ago, was celebrated by a gala tea in her honor, for which the living room at Hill Top was transformed into a bower by the gifts of potted plants and flowers from hundreds of friends.

Christian Science funeral services were held on Tuesday afternoon at the Howell Mission Chapel in Monterey where chief among the floral tributes was one woven of the flowers gathered from Miss Bartelme's own garden by the hands of her sister, a niece, a nephew and his wife.

She is survived by two sisters, Judge Mary Bartelme of Carmel Highlands and Mrs. Jeannette B. Tilt of Fontana, California; two nieces, Jeannette Raymond of Glencoe, Ill., and Adelaide Bartelme of Carmel Highlands; and three nephews: Edwin E. Tilt, of St. Louis, Missouri, George Tilt of Fontana, and Philip G. Bartelme of Sacramento.

Maude Wyman

Carmel lost another valued old-time resident in the passing of Mrs. Maude Crosby Wyman on the morning of May 22, following a long illness, at the home of Miss Elizabeth Pelley on Ninth and Casanova, where she had lived for the past six years. Mrs. Wyman was 85 years of age and came first to Carmel 30 years ago. She was a native of New York City.

She is missed by a wide circle of friends whom she had won and kept during her church and social activities wherever she was known, here and in Omaha and other parts of the Middle West and in China.

Twice Mrs. Wyman visited in China, first as a guest, later to spend months teaching lip reading in a school for deaf Chinese girls maintained by a friend of hers. She left just before the first World War, escaping through Shanghai. She traveled widely and became an enthusiastic admirer of the scenery of China and the character of the Chinese people.

Warmhearted, sympathetic, generous, cultured and intelligent, Mrs. Wyman had many interests, of which literature and music were chief. Her books, her radio and the visits of her friends brought her constant pleasure. Now her busy hands are still, but the influence of her wise and tender and cheerful spirit lives on.

She is survived by a son, Crosby Wyman who came out from his home in Detroit to attend the services, which will be held this afternoon at 2:30 at Dorney's funeral chapel in Monterey, Dr. J. E. Crowther officiating.

Also surviving are three step-grand-daughters, with whom Mrs. Wyman was closely bound by ties of affection: Mrs. Polly Robbins of Evanston, Ill., Mrs. Leo Bozell of Omaha, Neb., and Mrs. W. Rominger of Texas. — E. H.

Frederick Naylor

Rev. Albert E. Clay conducted funeral services on Tuesday afternoon at the Howell Mission Chapel in Monterey for Frederick D. Naylor, who died suddenly at his Monterey Country Club home on Sunday morning, May 21.

Mr. Naylor was 74 years of age and a native of Woodstock, Canada. He came to California 34 years ago, and lived for the past sixteen years on the Monterey Peninsula, following his retirement from the automobile business.

He leaves a widow, Mrs. Nellie Naylor, of the Monterey Country Club, and two daughters: Mrs. Irwin Barbour of Washington, D. C., and Mrs. F. J. Nicholas of Pacific Grove; a sister, Mrs. Maud Gregg of Hollywood; and three grand children; Pfc. Robert N. Barbour, U. S. Army, Frederick Barbour of San Bernardino and Richard Nicholas of Pacific Grove.

Lee Randolph To Open Summer Art School In Carmel

A summer course in art, comprising day classes in outdoor sketching and studio work for both beginning and advanced students, will shortly be opened in Carmel by Lee F. Randolph, honorary Dean of the California School of Fine Arts of San Francisco, who with Mrs. Randolph now makes his home in Carmel Woods.

Mr. Randolph brings to this new art project the value of a long and distinguished career as a painter and lecturer on art and etcher, as well as his experience as director of the California School of Fine Arts from 1917 until 1942 when, due to the war emergency, the building at Chestnut and Jones streets in San Francisco was turned over to the Red Cross for its use as a Blood Bank headquarters.

He began his studies of life drawing and painting and anatomy at the Cincinnati Art Academy, with later work at the Art Students' League in New York. For twelve years he studied and painted in Europe, attending L'Ecole des Beaux Arts, the Julian Academy and L'Atelier Andre Lhote in Paris, and exhibiting during this time in the Paris Salon and the International Exposition in Rome.

His paintings and etchings have appeared in many exhibitions throughout this country, including the Art Institute in Chicago, the Cincinnati Museum and in the annual shows of the San Francisco Art Association. Lee Randolph etchings from part of the permanent collection at the Luxembourg Galleries, Paris, and both etchings and paintings have found their way into notable American collections, both private and public.

He was awarded a medal at the 1916 International Exposition and was represented among the international exhibitors at the Golden Gate International Exposition in 1939.

Since coming to make his permanent home in Carmel last August, Mr. Randolph has conducted evening classes in life drawing which have proved increasingly popular among the art students of the Peninsula.

Spring Concert Is Big Success

Long hours of practice, the same bars over and over again, music sheets becoming worn and tattered and finally the opening night. It came, and afterwards everyone was congratulating Jaffrey Harris on the job he has done training the students.

The chorus, under Miss Dorothy Recht, participated in the concert and added greatly to its success. The chorus, with Robert Jensen as its feature soloist, consisted of: Becky Bell, Betty Bolton, Douglas Calley, Alyce Holm, Jim Jensen, Carolyn Kennington, Marianne Michaels, Mary McElroy, Bob Hendricks, Shirley Prudhom, Donald Rains, Duval Roberts, Barbara Stoney, Joyce Waite, Ann Sterling, Nancy Anderson, Ruthie Funchess, and Clara Hitchcock.

The orchestra members were: Douglas Calley, Joy Melrose, Billie Clair Mason, David Wilson, Charis Johns, Victor Harber, Marian Dowgiallo, Willette Torras, Andrea del Monte, Lou Frost, Martin Katz, Earl Walls, James Heisinger, Donald Rains, Donn Appleton, Rosalie Roberts, John Graham, Joe Goodrich, and Drane Tait. —By Angelo Lucido.

For that cocktail or birthday party, entertain your friends with the string music of Manuel Campos and his Rancheros, former Del Monte Hotel Entertainers, all wearing colorful Mexican outfits and Zarapes. Cost reasonable.

range. Arthur Hill Gilbert's popular rocks and seascape subject matter is presented in a beautiful little canvas. Frank Myers also contributes a seascape. Ferdinand Burgdorff has several of his rugged, glowing interpretations of the local scenes. Howard Smith's subtle interpretation of character and experience is depicted in his contribution.

Lee Randolph, former director of the California School of Fine Arts in San Francisco, and now a distinguished addition to the Art Association has offered works which demonstrate the reason for his eminent reputation. His sunlight and atmospheric effects are brushed in with his usual admirable virtuosity. Very fresh and gay, his canvasses should arouse the acquisitive urge in any observer.

A new member of the Association, Jean Caldwell, shows her right to be among the higher ranking exhibitors. Many have exclaimed at the precise charm of her interpretations and her subdued but rich color harmonies.

In all, there are forty-two artists represented. This makes it impossible for the reviewer to mention all the canvasses particularly. In this case, it is truly unfortunate, because they all rate enthusiastic description. The old saying, "Good things come in small packages," never was more applicable to any situation, and it is especially true in this case because the artists have so successfully fulfilled their aim that this should mark their eagerness to cooperate with new trends and requirements.

Attendance at PTA Health Conference Part Of War Effort

The next child health conference, held under the auspices of the Carmel P.T.A. and the Monterey County Health Board, will take place on Thursday, June 1, between the hours of 9 and 12 a. m. at the Church of the Wayfarer, which is located on Lincoln street, between Ocean avenue and 7th.

There conferences are definitely not clinics for underprivileged children, and the mother of every pre-school child in the community is urged to take advantage of them. They represent an opportunity to aid the national war effort by cooperating with the Government to keep the well child well.

In these days when the doctors on the home front have all that they can do to cope with serious illness and emergencies, they cannot always find time to give a perfectly healthy child a routine, monthly checkup. The Child Health Conferences provide this service, absolutely free, under the able supervision of Dr. St. Claire Lindsley who has had considerable experience of this sort in Los Angeles.

At every conference each child is weighed, measured and given a complete physical examination. At the proper time vaccination for small pox and dyphtheria inoculations are given, and every mother has the privilege of a private consultation with Dr. Lindsley on the health problems of her particular child. —Doanda P. Wheeler.

CHURCH OF THE WAYFARER

"The Beloved Church" will be the sermon theme by Dr. James E. Crowther next Sunday morning at the Church of the Wayfarer. There is no more heroic story in the annals of mankind than that of the Christian Church in the past nineteen-hundred years. Margaret Sherman Lea will play the following organ selections: "Blessed Is He," Jones; "Inner Vision," Coerne; "O God, Our Help In Ages Past," Mueller; "Panis Angelicus," Frank; "God's Peace Is Peace Eternal," Grieg. The Church School begins at 9:45; the Church Service is at eleven. A cordial invitation is extended to visitors.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE CHURCH

"Ancient and Modern Necromancy, alias, Mesmerism and Hypnotism, Denounced" will be the subject of the Lesson-Sermon Sunday, May 28, in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, branches of The Mother Church, The First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Boston, Massachusetts. The Golden Text will be: "I would have you wise unto that which is good, and simple concerning evil. And the God of peace shall bruise Satan under your feet shortly," (Romans 16: 19, 20.)

Other Bible citations will include: "Then spake Jesus again unto them, saying, I am the light of the world: he that followeth me shall not walk in darkness, but shall have the light of life," (John 8:12).

The Lesson-Sermon will also include the following passages from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy: "The maximum of good is the infinite God and His idea, the All-in-all. Evil is a suppositional lie. . . . Jesus defined this opposite of God and His creation better than we can, when he said, 'He is a liar, and the father of it.' . . . All these sayings were to show that mind in matter is the author of itself, and is simply a falsity and illusion," (pp. 103, 554).

League Cracks Down On Student Raids On Rival Schools

High school students or their friends whose ideas of school loyalty include distruction of the property of a rival institution from now on will pay a high penalty for their depredations.

At a meeting of the Coast Counties Athletic League in Salinas, attended by Coach Rudy Rudd, Superintendent J. W. Getsinger and Russel Bohlke, a resolution was passed barring from all interschool competition for an entire season any school whose student body membership or their friends are guilty of raiding or damaging the school grounds or property of another school.

It was also decided at the same meeting to petition the ODT to rescind its rule prohibiting the use of school buses to transport athletic teams and rooters to games and meets. Under present regulations the OPA allows the use of gasoline for such purposes but the ODT denies the use of buses, so that four or five private automobiles are now used in place of a bus with the result that more gas is consumed and there is a greater risk to the safety of the students.

The schedule of league games for next year was drawn up so that it is approximately the same as last season's. It was decided that a committee of three principals to be appointed later should chose the officials for the games rather than the secretary of the League as has been the practice heretofore.

Other business was the re-election of officers, A. B. Ingram of Pacific Grove, president; Hal Youngman, Monterey, secretary, and Nelson Sewell, Salinas, treas.

Clyde L. Ingels

Funeral services were held under the auspices of the Monterey Elks Lodge at Paul's Chapel in Pacific Grove on Tuesday afternoon for Clyde L. Ingels, 71, widely known and well loved resident of this community for nearly half a century, whose death occurred at his home in Del Monte Grove on Saturday, May 20.

Mr. Ingels was born in Tuscaloosa, Iowa, and came with his family to San Benito county as a child. He was a veteran of the Spanish-American war and from his early youth an expert saddlemaker. In 1917 he opened a saddlery shop in Monterey, later becoming a rancher at Corral de Tierra. He retired several years ago and has since made his home on the Monterey Peninsula. The death of his wife, Mrs. Amy Ingels, occurred three months ago.

An accomplished violinist, Mr. Ingels was closely indentified with community musical events since Monterey's early days, when he frequenty conducted orchestras for visiting stage notables.

He is survived by two daughters, Mrs. Antoino Rivera of Hollywood, the former Miss Mary Ingels, and Miss Beth Ingels of Robles Del Rio; two sons, R. C. Ingels of Monterey and Howard Brice Ingels, U. S. Navy; and two sisters, Mrs. Kitty Gilliam of Vallejo and Mrs. Edith Heath of Alameda.

Lions Finally Play Show-em Game, Are Now Very Satisfied

After a series of unavoidable delays, the epochal "show-em" soft ball game between the Carmel Lions Club and the Carmel High School Varsity came off at two o'clock Sunday afternoon on the high school athletic field with the Lions "showing" the Varsity to the tune of seven to eight, the eight in favor of the Varsity.

The Lions opened brilliantly, chalking up four runs in the first flashy inning and then began to ease off a little to recover their wind. This gave the Varsity, a strictly hard-ball outfit, time to find out that once you get a bead on it, you can wallop a soft ball just as effectively as the regulation big league pellet. With this momentous discovery under their belts, the youngsters sailed in and not only reduced the lead against them, but succeeded in nosing out their elders in the last inning.

In spite of their defeat, the Lions are purring with satisfaction that it wasn't a deal more severe against such young and resilient opposition, and are emboldened to the extent of toying with the idea of challenging the Monterey Lions Club or anyone else who may feel like getting up and swinging a bat on Sunday afternoon.

The lineup for Sunday's game was:

For the Lions: Cree Wilder, c; Ernest Morehouse, p; Lloyd Weer, 1b; Frank Chadwick, 2b; Jean Ricketts, Ivan Kelsey, ss; Waldo Hicks, 3b; Lewis Poulos, rf; Cliff Cook, cf; Chas. Childers, Ken Carleton, lf, (also umpires.)

Catnip Now On WAC Menu At Salinas Base

Without benefit of transfers, induction, enlistment or any other military function Squadron W of Salinas Army Air Base has an increased strength of five, according to last Friday's issue of The Observer, base weekly newspaper.

The increase in personnel was accomplished when "Mama," squadron cat, presented the outfit with five kittens.

Though the births were considered an act of God—with the assistance of S/Sgt. Mary Louise Neill who served as midwife—the arrival nevertheless has produced its complications. Since the Quartermaster subsistence currently lacks catnip, the WAC Commanding officer, Lt. Mullendore is having problems with rations. Classification, it seems, can't find an appropriate MOS to assign Sgt. Neill for her new military duty of midwife.

As result of her performance, "Mama" has been promoted to Sergeant. But failure to identify the father resulted in her Good Conduct ribbon being revoked.

POPPY DAY PROCLAMATION

Saturday, May 27, was proclaimed Poppy Day in Carmel-by-the-Sea by Mayor P. A. McCreery in a proclamation issued today. The Mayor called upon all citizens to observe the day by wearing memorial poppies in honor of the men who have given their lives in the nations defense.

The proclamation stated:

"Whereas, the United States of America is again being forced to crush powerful enemies seeking to establish their tyranny over the world, and

"Whereas, the young men of Carmel-by-the-Sea again are offering their lives in the nation's service, and

"Whereas, the memory of those who have given their lives is cherished by us all and is an inspiration to us all in these grave days, and

"Whereas, their service and sacrifice is symbolized by the memorial poppy of The American Legion and American Legion Auxiliary, now therefore

"I, P. A. McCreery, Mayor of the City of Carmel-by-the-Sea, do hereby proclaim Saturday, May 27, 1944, to be Poppy Day in the City of Carmel-by-the-Sea, and urge all citizens to observe the day by wearing the memorial poppy in honor of the men who died for America in the battles of World War I and World War II."

P. A. McCreery, Mayor, Carmel-by-the-Sea.

Fraties Attends Shooting Meet, Still Grumbling At Mylar

Chief of Police Roy Fraties left Wednesday to attend the May Fire Arms Training Meet of the F.B.I. in San Francisco.

Fraties, who is an alumnus of the National Police Academy, received a letter from Nat Pieper, F. B.I. West Coast head, urging him to be present for National Police Academy Day on May 24. While in San Francisco he will visit Bill Dodd whom he and Fred Mylar took to the Lane Hospital in the Red Cross Ambulance last week. It was on this ambulance trip Mylar pulled the swifty that the Chief is still grousing about.

As they passed Moffit Field, Fraties observed to Mylar that he'd like to go up in one of those things. Mylar said, uh-huh, he'd like to go up, too. "You ever been up in a plane, Fred?", inquired the Chief. "Uh-huh," said the assistant post master, "I got my wings in the last war."

"He'd never told me he was a flier in the last war," complained Fraties. "But I might have suspected it from the way he drives that ambulance."

Election Board Very Unswamped By Last Friday's Balloting

Mrs. Martha Moller, running uncontested for membership on the Board of Trustees for the Carmel Unified School District, was elected by a majority of 34 votes. Thirty-five ballots were cast. The one Mrs. Moller did not get was not a write-in, but a blank, cast by someone apparently whose sole reason for voting was for the fun of feeding a ballot into the ballot-box.

The school board will meet officially at one o'clock Friday afternoon at the high school board room to canvass the votes.

Horseback Riding

Nancy Miller and I take horseback riding lessons down at the Mission Ranch. We go riding every Thursday. The last time we went riding, we were trotting and Nancy was in front of me. I wasn't looking at her when she got bucked off her horse, but when I did look she wasn't on her horse! I looked down at the ground and there she was. She did not hurt herself, though at first she was white and shaky.
—Pat Collins, Grade 5.

The Haunted House

A few months ago a friend and I went to a haunted house. When we went in all the boards were creaking. We looked around, but when we saw a small pair of eyes, that was too much! We got out of there so quickly that you couldn't see our dust. We never did find out what it was.
—John Monroe, Grade 5.

An Exciting Moment

One day my mother, my sister and I went to get my father. We were coming back home when, about a block away from the house, our car ran out of gas and we had to push it home. We went in the house, ate and went to bed. About five hours passed by.

Pretty soon we heard fire engines and there was fire about five feet away from me! It was just getting to the blankets, I pulled the covers off the bed and got them wet. I put them around my sister and myself and we ran for our lives.

The man who lived next door to us had set the fire. He was burned in it. —Allen Moorney, Grade 5.

Visitors at School

Three visitors came to our room. A king snake came on Monday. He stuck his tongue out at one of the boys. A mud turtle came the same day. I'll bet he was mad! A chameleon was at school Tuesday. We tried to make him change color. —Robert Bolton, Grade 3.

Home In Carmel

My home is in Carmel. We own the Green Lantern. We like it very, very much. On Saturday's I go to the beach. I like to go to Sunset School. I have some good friends at school.
—Peggy Weaver, Grade 3.

May Festival At Forest Hill School Tuesday Afternoon

The pupils of the Forest Hill school are this week issuing an invitation to their families, friends and the general public for a May Festival, to be held at the school at 3:30 p. m. on Tuesday, May 30.

They have prepared a playlet based upon incidents in the boyhood of Mozart, whose life they have been studying. The rhythm band will perform Mozart's Sonata in A and the Viennese Sonata, while the whole school will join in singing the charming Wiegenlied and longing for Spring. The role of Mozart will be played by Dennis Mahar, while Ward Dolan will portray Father Mozart. Barbara Babcock, diminutive and gifted pianist, will interpret Mozart's Minuet in F.

Opening number of Act II will be the Don Juan Minuet, and in this second portion of the program all the youngsters will dance to old English tunes in an out-of-doors setting. The finale will consist of merry frolicking around a colorful May Pole to the accompaniment of Edward German's Shepherds' Dance.

The May Festival is the last event of the school year at Forest Hill, which closes on June 7. During the following eight weeks a summer camp will be held mornings under the direction of Miss Grace Anne Douglass, in which children from five to eight years of age may be registered, and for which several special features are in preparation.

Follow this FOOD Rule
7 BASIC FOODS
Provide Vital Vitamins

Avoid Being a Vitamin Killer!

PRACTICE PROTECTIVE COOKING

When you eat right, you feel right. There is no question about that. The first half of eating begins with planning your meals for health giving qualities. A good guide to follow is the 7 Basic Foods chart recommended by national nutrition authorities. The second half of proper eating and the most important...is protective cooking. That means cooking foods, especially vegetables, in as little water as possible and for as short a time as possible. The reason is this. Most vitamins do not like to be drowned in lots of water or be smothered by prolonged heat exposure. There is a tummy-yum-yum flavor to all foods when the natural vitamins and minerals have been retained by the proper cooking. A taste-test will convince you. Try it!

Returns to Highlands

Mrs. Theodore Criley is once more established in her Carmel Highlands home after a six weeks' visit to the eastern coast. Returning with her was her friend, Dr. Alice Hamilton, who enjoys the distinction of being the only woman member of the faculty at Harvard University, where she is a professor of Industrial Pathology in the medical department. Dr. Hamilton came west to give a series of four lectures at the recent medical convention held in Los Angeles, at the conclusion of which she spent a few days in Carmel as a guest of Mrs. Criley. Now Mrs. Criley is anticipating the ten-day leave of her son-in-law, Captain Russell Williams, from his post on the medical staff at the aviation gunnery school at Las Vegas, Nevada. Captain and Mrs. Williams, the former Cynthia Criley, with their three children, Marian, Richard and Johnny, are expected to arrive at the Criley home on June 17. Movies and Music

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Schoeninger on Stewart Way and Scenic Drive was the scene of an informal gathering on Saturday evening at which home-grown movies were shown and the piano playing of one of the guests, WAVE Dorothy Noonan, was enjoyed. Present were Miss Undine Bliss, here from Stockton with Miss Noonan and another WAVE friend, Ensign Margaret Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Winslow, Mr. Richard Sisson and Miss Hester Schoeninger. Word received recently from Sergeant Joe Schoeninger, Jr., now serving in the Public Relations department of the 8th Air Force, somewhere in England, tells of a delightful week end leave spent in Nottingham as the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Elliot ("Metz") Durham, in whose spacious country home there is a guest room kept always in readiness for a Carmel boy in the service.

It would be a safe bet that in the nostalgic recollections of Carmel mention was made of the Forest Theatre, where in the same summer season of 1928 Joe Schoeninger played the title role in Rem Remsen's unforgettable children's fantasy, Inchling, and "Metz" Durham enacted a principal character in Stephen Phillip's Herod.

Carmel Friends Hear Dick Criley Talk From England

Thrilling feature for Carmel listeners on last Sunday's Army Hour broadcast over KGO was the voice of First Lieutenant Richard Criley, speaking from England, one of a group of three young officers chosen for the program.

Lt. Criley, the son of Mrs. Theodore M. Criley of Carmel Highlands, is a member of the Commission for Allied Control, and has recently been called to England following his service with the commission in Sicily and Italy since March, 1943.

He was born in France and has a fluent command of not only the French language but that of Spain, acquired during his two year's attendance at the University of Madrid. He is a graduate of the University of California, and in preparation for his work with the Allied Commission spent the first months after his arrival overseas in familiarizing himself with the Italian language in a school specially set up for that purpose. He arrived in Sicily the night following the Allied invasion, narrowly escaping a penetration beyond the German lines, and was able to find for himself a bed on the hard brick floor of what had once been the mayor's office. Later his headquarters were at Palermo, where he was given the administration of an entire province, and one of the major tasks was to round up food and water for the stricken inhabitants. Problems of labor and education came next on the list, and there is no doubt that the efforts of young Lt. Criley contributed much toward the highly commended results of the commission's work both in Sicily and later in Italy.

In a recent letter to his mother, Lt. Criley commented upon the widely read Bell for Adano, a copy of which had been sent to him, since the book is a novelized version of the difficulties and obstacles encountered by a young administrator working in Sicily under the Commission for Allied Control. "I didn't run into any such stuffed-shirt generals," he commented; "but neither did I find time to get bells for any of the villages—I was too busy getting food for them."

PAROCHIAL SCHOOL DRIVE

A group of parishioners met at the rectory last week when plans were adopted to raise funds for the parochial school. The drive will start this week and it is hoped that in a short time the necessary money will be secured to start on the school in the near future. At present there are eighty children attending the Notre Dame school at the Villa. So many requests have come in for admission of children that, because of the lack of space, it is impossible to accommodate all of them. It is hoped by the parishioners that with the new modern school, parents who are anxious to give their children a religious background along with their other studies may have ample opportunity. The school will be an added asset to Carmel and its cultural life as the Notre Dame sisters are one of the great teaching sisterhoods in the church.

MEMORIAL DAY AT MISSION

Memorial Day will be commemorated at the Mission this year with solemn ceremonies. There will be a high mass at nine o'cock. The Mission choir under the direction of Noel Sullivan will sing the mass. Memorial card with the names of the living and dead in the armed forces will be placed on the service altar during the mass. After the mass appropriate prayers will be said. In the old Indian cemetery adjoining the Mission prayers will be offered for the dead who have given their lives for their country. The services are open to the public, and any persons who wish to turn in the names of their friends in the armed forces are welcome to do so. The names will be kept on the service altar for the duration of the war where prayers will be said for them continuously.

Ten Counselors Appointed To Assist The Club

A committee of counselors was appointed at a general meeting of parents and friends of Carmel high school students at The Club Tuesday night.

About fifty people attended the meeting and were unanimous in their enthusiasm for what has been accomplished in the new club house for high school boys and girls, and were unstinted in their praise of Mrs. J. O. Handley and Mrs. Howard Monroe who have been tireless in their work of getting the club organized, and helping the young people get the building repaired, painted and furnished.

A round table discussion of policy and financing resulted in the agreement that the young people should continue to manage the club themselves and that a plan for financing it be worked out by the counselors who are; Mrs. Ann Michels, Mrs. G. A. Moller, Mrs. J. O. Handley, Mrs. Howard Monroe, O. W. Irwin, J. Weaver Kitchen, J. W. Getsinger, Mrs. J. D. Thorn, Mrs. Carmalita Benson and R. D. Hebb who is to act as chairman.
